Arizona Masonic Charities Presents Donation to Legal Services for Crime Victims (LSCVA)

On Thursday 18 September 2025, Arizona Masonic Charities presented a donation check to Legal Services For Crime Victims, (LSCVA) which is located in Peoria Arizona. In the photo, attending the check presentation (from Left) are April Sponsel, Membership Director for LSCVA; Doug Peck, Past Master of Sun City Lodge No. 72; Jamie Balson, LSCVA Attorney; and David P Miller, Board President of the Arizona Masonic Charities.

The not for profit organization provides legal representation in criminal cases to victims of crime in Arizona with a priority given to victims of domestic violence and sexual violence. LSCVA asserts and seeks enforcement of crime victims' rights and provides social services to facilitate healing in the aftermath of criminal activity. The non-profit has been a past recipient of funding from the Arizona Masonic Charities.

This moment exemplifies the enduring commitment of Arizona Masons to serve justice, compassion, and relief within our communities.

Greetings from the East,

We have just concluded our Awards Dinner, and I couldn't be prouder of our Lodge and its members. It was an honor to present the Master's Pins to several deserving Brothers. I only wish I could have presented more, as our members continually give so much of themselves to our Lodge and to the community.

I was especially proud to announce Brother Arizona Milke as our Mason of the Year. The time, effort, and dedication he has invested in our Lodge made him an easy and well-deserved choice. His willingness to help wherever needed truly exemplifies our Masonic values.

Congratulations also to Brother Damon Bose on receiving the Past Master's Beehive Award. This, too, was an easy decision. Damon's tireless involvement and steady commitment to every aspect of Lodge life are a true reflection of his Masonic character and devotion.

I'd like to extend a heartfelt thank-you to Gary Fullington and Robert (Bob) Meisinger, who really came through for us. Thanks to their and the Building Committee's efforts—and with the support of the Trust Committee—we now have cool air flowing through the Lodge Room! I'm deeply grateful to the Trust Committee for their careful stewardship of our finances, which makes it possible to take on projects like this ourselves, and for keeping the Lodge so well-informed. The Building Committee also deserves special recognition for finding the best deals and keeping our building in top shape. Once again, our members have shown the true spirit and light of Masonry in action.

Please mark your calendars for November 13th, when we will hold our Stated Meeting and elect officers for the upcoming Masonic year. Then, join us on November 15th at noon for the Installation of Officers. This is a public event, and all are welcome to attend and share in this important occasion.

As I conclude my time in the East, I do so with immense gratitude. Serving this Lodge has been one of the great honors of my Masonic journey. The guidance, encouragement, and brotherhood I've received have turned this past year into a truly memorable and meaningful experience.

My last words from the East to this amazing Lodge are, "Time, like the plumb, teaches us to walk uprightly and to know when our labors are complete." Thank you all, and may the Great Architect bless you all.

Welcome back Brothers!

I hope your summer was just as bright as the days were, and glad to be back at lodge again. We had a great stated meeting in September, coinciding with the 24th anniversary of 9/11. Although a solemn time, I feel we were able to honor the moment and give this year a proper intention to step with.

Wisdom is one of our core virtues, a piece of a circle that empowers us in an upward trajectory of greatness. Wisdom comes in 2 forms- academic and applied. In Masonry, this can easily be shown. The academic wisdom here is in the book work- memorizing the ritual, understanding the symbols and allegories we teach, knowing the grips and words. These help us to lay the foundation necessary to creating great men and a lasting brotherhood, but without being able to apply that wisdom to every aspect of life, it is merely a flame in the wind, bound to extinguish. I was listening to a masonic podcast, and something they had quoted stuck. "This fraternity cannot live and thrive on stories from its glorious past. If we do, we may not be long of this world." In Ancient Greece, there was a distinct difference between the Sophists and the Philosophers. Where the Sophist were masters of rhetoric and were celebrities of the spoken word, Philosophers actively took those words and used them to form a life dedicated to those ideas. They showed their followers how to live, not just how to say how to live. They were the true enlightened of their time, and typically their humble appearances and lifestyles did not reflect the reward they gained by doing so.

We are a brotherhood with a long history rich in fostering great ideas, movements, and perspectives. We have been instrumental in the shaping of history. Masonry has changed lives, families, countries, the world in so many ways, it would be a scary thought to imagine where we would be without the courageous brothers of our masonic lineage.

Our society is calling for us to step up again. We are in need of examples of courage, temperance, prudence, justice, brotherly love, relief, and truth. To bring light into the shadows. Finding more ways to show ourselves to our community as that beacon not only gives us that chance to exemplify our virtues and values, but attracts more who are looking for that, and more and more are searching. This is an opportunity to step in line with the brothers of our past, and help bring society to its greatest potential- one of love and charity, of hope and peace.

Please make sure to RSVP for the past master's degree, and for next meetings dinners as soon as you are able to, and until we meet again, may peace and harmony prevail.

Fraternally,
Dustin Barron

SICKNESS & HEALTH

THE “ALMONER’S VOICE”

One of Freemasonry’s core values is looking after others, and Almoners are at the forefront of delivering care and support to lodge members and their families. When things change in life, having a strong support system can make all the difference.

Never feel “embarrassed” or “uncomfortable” in reaching out for support or help with your Lodge Almoner. All conversations and communication are strictly private. Anything shared will only be released to the Lodge with your absolute permission.

Brethren,

I am saddened to report that since our last communication, we have lost one of our Brothers to the Grand Lodge Above:

Necrology

- Bro. William Lawrence Strickland – passed on June 29, 2025, at the age of 94

We remember him with deep respect and gratitude for his years of service and fellowship within our Lodge. May his family find comfort in knowing he is held in our thoughts and prayers.

If you have any personal news you wish to share with the Brethren—births, weddings, anniversaries, or other celebrations—please let me know via email.

Stay healthy Brethren.

W. Bro Barry White
Almoner.

HEY BROTHER... YEAH, YOU!

- Haven't been to Lodge in a while?
No judgement. Just pull up.
- Don't recognize anyone anymore?
That's cool – introduce yourself.
Brotherhood didn't vanish, it just got some new faces.
- Got some years under your belt?
Awesome. Drop some wisdom on the young guns. They're hungry for it (even if they act like they aren't).
- Feeling a little "out of the loop"?
Totally normal. But guess what? We don't read minds. Say something.

THE LODGE IS STILL YOUR HOME!

We've missed you! Come back and help us keep the Light burning.
